

When a flame becomes Perfume ....

The story of the Rigaud company dates back to 1852, when Jean Baptiste Rigaud opened a perfumery in Paris. He revolutionised the world of perfume by selecting new, original fragrances made from plant essences unknown until then and imported from far-away places. His passion and meticulous attention to detail established his brand's credentials and its prestige soon spread beyond France.

Rigaud perfumes became a must due to their rich, timeless and innovative composition.

However it wasn't until the 1960's that the perfume took the shape of a candle. The brand then developed and patented an original wax that fully reveals the richness of the natural essences.

From Tokyo to New York, from Saint Petersburg to Sydney .... The Rigaud Flame perfume adorns interiors around the world with their refined fragrances.

Each Rigaud candle has a soul. It calls out to you, speaks to you and invites you to share fabulous stories. Listen to them, feel them....
